Hull's Drive-In In Lexington To Raise Cancer Awareness

As interviewed by CBS affiliate WDBJ 7 Roanoke VA

September 5, 2009

Hull's Drive-In in Lexington to raise Cancer awareness

Besides showing some of Hollywood's biggest hits, a local drive-in is hoping to raise awareness of both Breast Cancer and Prostate Cancer.

On September 11th and 12th, Hull's Drive-In in Lexington will be holding a Breast Cancer/Prostate Cancer Awareness Weekend.

Peggy Payne with Hull's Drive-In appeared on News 7 Saturday Morning to talk about the event.

It coincides with Prostate Cancer Awareness Month in September and Breast Cancer Awareness in October.

By having it on that particular weekend, workers will be able to hand out literature to get the word out about free prostate cancer screenings in the area.

The movies showing on that weekend are the hit comedy "The Hangover" as well as the Katherine Heigl romance "The Ugly Truth".

You can find movie showtimes and more information about the drive-in go to www.HullsDriveIn.com
